Visit DeSoto County

DeSoto County, Mississippi, is where rich history, family fun and Southern hospitality come together. Just minutes from Memphis, the communities of Southaven, Olive Branch, Hernando, Horn Lake and Walls offer something for everyone! Experience Southern charm throughout the county, select a fantastic dinner spot at one of our many locally owned restaurants, enjoy the outdoors at our many parks and trails, catch a live concert at Landers Center or BankPlus Amphitheater, or shop for the perfect memento at our local boutiques. Memories are made at the top of the Magnolia State.

Greetings

FROM THE TOURISM TEAM!

We're excited to welcome you to a place where family and friends come to relax, connect and make lasting memories. Here you can explore one of our beautiful parks or trails, enjoy local cuisine, shop till you drop, attend a concert or kid-friendly show and find the perfect venue for your next event. With plenty to do and see, we're sure you'll feel at home, so... welcome home!

CHARMING TOWNS.

COUNTLESS NEW EXPERIENCES.

There's nothing ordinary about the exciting mix of engagements and attractions, food and fun, sport and relaxation you'll enjoy in the towns that make up DeSoto County. Be sure you check out each one.

SOUTHAVEN

MAYOR DARREN MUSSELWHITE

Southaven offers unique amenities while maintaining the charm of suburban living. As a youth sports hub, we host top-tier tournaments throughout the year. Landers Center offers a variety of concerts, sporting events and family friendly live shows and BankPlus Amphitheater at Snowden Grove Park brings in some of the biggest names in entertainment. Explore scenic parks, dine at local restaurants and shop at Tanger Outlets, Silo Square or one of the town's many boutiques.

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Darren Musselwhite".

- Founded in the 1960s by Kemmons Wilson, the creator of Holiday Inn
- Referred to as “The Top of Mississippi”
- Population: 54,851 (as of 2023)
- One of the fastest-growing cities in the Southeast, according to an economic development report
- Boyhood home of novelist John Grisham, who also practiced law here

OLIVE BRANCH

MAYOR KEN ADAMS

Olive Branch is where history meets modern living. With beautiful parks, thriving businesses and a strong sense of community, there's something for everyone to enjoy. Our rich cultural heritage and welcoming atmosphere make Olive Branch a wonderful place to live, work, worship and play. As you explore, you'll discover a variety of activities and attractions – from local shops and restaurants to outdoor events and festivals.

Kenneth R. Adams

- Founded in 1836
- Hometown of NASCAR driver and Daytona 500 winner Ricky Stenhouse Jr.
- Population: 47,029 (as of 2023)
- Formerly named Watson's Crossroads due to the location of several old Chickasaw Indian Trail crossings

HERNANDO

MAYOR CHIP JOHNSON

Hernando, the county seat and “Mississippi’s Front Porch,” offers a quaint, hometown feel with modern amenities. Our historic town square is the perfect place to shop at local boutiques, enjoy a concert on the courthouse lawn, dine at a local restaurant or stroll through the acclaimed Hernando Farmers Market. Under the watchful eye of our iconic water tower, visitors can also enjoy our many festivals, including the annual Hernando Dickens of a Christmas.

- Founded in 1839
- First incorporated town in DeSoto County
- Named after the Spanish explorer Hernando de Soto
- Home to the DeSoto County Museum, and Mississippi Blues Trail markers honoring Jim Jackson, the Dickinson family, Gus Cannon and Robert “Tim” Wilkins
- Population: 18,239 (as of 2023)

HORN LAKE

MAYOR ALLEN LATIMER

In Horn Lake, we pride ourselves on being one of the safest cities in the state and home to one of the most unique attractions in the area. The American Contract Bridge League Museum houses the only premier collection of bridge-related artifacts in the world. If card games aren't your thing, you can take in the natural beauty of our 120-acre Latimer Lakes Park which features walking trails, baseball, football and soccer fields, frisbee golf and a skate park.

Allen B. Latimer

- Founded in 1973
- Named after the body of water left behind when the Mississippi River changed course in the late 1700s
- Elvis and Priscilla Presley honeymooned on their 160-acre Horn Lake ranch in the 1960s
- Population: 26,468 (as of 2023)

WALLS

MAYOR KEIDRON HENDERSON

Steeped in history, our town of Walls is where Hernando de Soto first encountered the mighty Mississippi River, marking a historic moment in our nation's history. We are proud to be the first stop on the Mississippi Blues Trail, honoring blues legend Memphis Minnie. Walls offers a unique glimpse into the heart of the Delta, with scenic trails and rich agricultural roots.

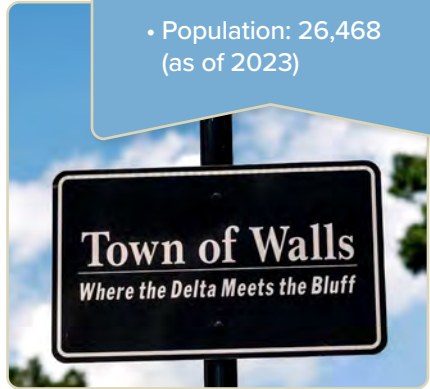

Keidron Henderson

- Founded in 1906
- Referred to as the “Doorway to the Delta,” due to its proximity to the banks of the Mississippi River
- Home to a Mississippi Blues Trail marker paying homage to Memphis Minnie and three conical mounds believed to have been built by Native Americans between 1200-1600
- Population: 26,468 (as of 2023)
